All decisions of the Common Law Court are unimpeachable and cannot be altered by a statutory court. The only way that a decision from the Common Law Court may be challenged, is if there is evidence of jury tampering, or it can be established that crucial evidence was withheld from the jury, during the trial. If a statutory court were to interfere, fail to recognise or abide by a Common Law Court decision, this may be a denial of Common Law Rights and a Common Law crime against the people.

COMMON LAW COURT

Passport As from 05 June 2024
Common Law Court Passports conform to

INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION ORGANIZATION
Doc. 9303, machine readable zone.

Given the current difficulties facing living men and living women, the Common Law Court is now offering the opportunity to purchase your own Lawfully issued Common Law Court Passport.

This passport and its use are only available to living men, living women and their property (children).

These individuals will have established their position through a declaration of a lawful birth with the Common Law Court and will have obtained the required reference number (LBD) to be used as the date of birth on the passport.
Your Common Law Court Passport confirms the following:

That all men and women are created equal.
That the holder of this passport is not:
– A strawman in commerce;
– A corporate fiction;
– A legal entity;
– Or a legal person.
The right to freedom of association is a fundamental and inherent right that all living men and living women have.
The Common Law Court abhors slavery in all forms.
That a company with a profit motive, or without it, does not have authority over a living man or living woman.
That everyone standing under the Common Law Court is living and not a dead fiction or citizen.
That the holder of this passport only has a contract with the people, as we stand under common law.
That where there is equality, without consent there is no authority or jurisdiction.
Neither force, nor weapons, nor fear, are sources of law.
Note

We The People, confirm that this lawfully issued passport can be used to establish your standing as a living man or living woman.

Having established your standing as living, you are no longer subject to statutory laws for the dead unless you consent to them.

This lawfully issued passport has been issued by CLC International and carries with it the authority of the Common Law Court and the People under the Law of the Creator of this realm.

Although this passport confirms your standing and right to travel, it does not give you access to statutory benefits, entitlement and/or privileges in the country that you are visiting.

Footnote

To overcome any unlawful objection when using this lawful passport, the people of the Common Law Court contacted the United Nations on 08 October 2023 to notify them that the people have the right to use this lawful passport. The Common Law Court can confirm that it has obtained their approval for its use by tacit agreement.

Should your CLC Passport be unlawfully confiscated (stolen) by anyone who presumes they have the authority to do so (they don't), you can use the document links below to instruct them to return your stolen property immediately (CLC Passport). CLC will not be held liable if your lawfully issued passport is confiscated by an uneducated individual thief. Your CLC Passport was lawfully issued and is not a fraudulent document.

In the document you send to them you will need to change all the red text to your own details. Don't forget to make all the red text black.
